TUESDAY, JUNE 15

The Dixie Bee Line Highway route will be selected at a meeting to be held in Evansville June 25.

A girl baby born the day the road meeting was held in Elizabeth-bethtown last week has been named Dixie Highway Lushy.

A Lieutenant and several sailors of the interned crew of the German cruiser at Newport News, have violated their paroles and escaped.

The German who finds himself in jail because he swore that he saw guns on the Lusitania evidently will again not try to put up a Stahl.

The second note of President Wilson on the Lusitania affair is pronounced "firm but pacific" in London and has made a favorable impression in Berlin, particularly that portion offering to act as mediator to change conditions. It is freely predicted that the note is the beginning of a correspondence of far-reaching importance.

Mr. Bryan seems to stand alone in the opinion that the note would provoke war. It may lead to peace and deprive Mr. Bryan of an opportunity to win immortality as a peace-maker. He made a mistake in not sticking to the President when he needed him worst. He is making another mistake in writing so many letters upon a subject the President wants to handle himself.

In an authorized statement Rear Admiral Fullam said he would welcome a searching investigation into his administration as superintendent of the naval academy. He expressed strong indignation at what he considered reflections and insinuations against him and the officers under his command in the course of the proceeding before the court of inquiry investigating irregularities in the examinations at the academy.

Applauding President Wilson for his stand in the disagreement with Secretary Bryan as regards matters at issue between the United States and Germany, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, in a signed statement received from Breton, La., pledged his support to the President in all steps which he may take to uphold the honor and the interests of the United States. Mr. Taft a month ago, assured the President of his support in the present crisis. Now comes the Colonel and moves to make it unanimous.

Mr. Bryan Friday night issued an appeal addressed to "the German-Americans," urging them to aid in maintaining peace between the United States and the fatherland by exerting their influence with the influence with the German government to persuade it not to take any steps that would lead in the direction of war. With this statement Mr. Bryan expects to end for the present his efforts to lay before the public the situation which caused him to resign the portfolio of secretary of state. On Wednesday he gave out an explanation of why he left the cabinet rather than sign the last American note to Germany regarding submarine warfare; Thursday he issued an appeal to "the American people" to stand for persuasion rather than for force in asserting rights under international law and Friday he made a brief statement expressing gratification at what he termed a change of tone on the part of the "jingo editors" regarding the note to Germany and the same night issued the fourth statement.

Glad Vacation Time.

The boy home from school for the summer vacation or the dear old farm, rested on his hoe, and gazed over across the broad, hay-scented field where the game was going on. "Ah," said he, sighing, "why are we born? Why lured from eternal nothingness into concrete existence, to buffet the storms of this unkind world? What, then, this problem of human existence with which science has wrestled futilely for ages?" And his revered parent, leaning over the fence, said he didn't know; but, all the same, there would be no baseball for sonny that afternoon, and if he didn't hoe out that 'tater patch before night there'd be some wrestling done, though, that'd make science open her eyes if she should chance along by the woodshed that evening.—Exchange.

Advice to Readers.

Very ready are we to say of a book, "How good this is—that's exactly what I think!" But the right feeling is "How strange that is! I never thought of that before, and yet I see it is true, or if I do not now, I hope I shall some day." But whether thus submissively or not, at least be sure that you go to the author to get his meaning, not to find yours. Judge it afterward if you think yourself qualified to do so; but ascertain it first. And be sure also, if the author is worth anything, that you will not get at his meaning all at once; nay at his whole meaning you will not for a long time arrive in any wise.—Ruskin.

WHY SHOULD WOMEN VOTE?

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF LEADING FARMERS.

Why should women vote? That is the question that is ringing from ocean to ocean and reverberating from the Canadian boundary to the Mexican border. It is the mission of a newspaper to give the news and the action of the Texas Farmers' Union in opposing woman's suffrage when that question was recently before the Texas legislature is significant as representing the attitude of the organized plowmen. We reproduce in part the argument presented by Hon. W. D. Lewis, president of the Texas Farmers' Union, in opposing the bill: "It is gratifying to note that it is not the farmer's wife who is clamoring for the ballot. She is too busy trying to make happier homes, molding the minds of future citizens and sharing with her husband the cares of life to indulge in political gossip. The ballot will give her no relief from drudgery, give no assistance in clothing the children or bring to the home additional comforts, conveniences or opportunities in life. It is, as a rule, the city woman promoted to idleness by prosperity, who is leading the suffragette movement.

"From many standpoints, perhaps a woman has as much right to vote as a man. So has she as much right to plow as a man; she has as much right to work in a factory as a man; she has as much right to shoulder a musket as a man, but we would rather she would not do so from choice and we regret that necessity oftentimes compels her to earn a living by engaging in gainful occupations. We do not consider misfortune a qualification for suffrage or a business accident a reason for granting franchise. We are opposed to woman at the ballot box the same as we are opposed to woman in the field, in the factory or in the army and for the self-same reasons. We had rather see her plant flowers than sow wheat; gather bouquets than pick cotton and rear children than raise political issues, although she may have as much right to do one as the other.

Opposed to Unsexing Humanity.

"Sex qualification for suffrage may have its apparent inconsistencies. No general rule adjusts itself perfectly to all conditions. It is a favorite argument advanced by the proponents of woman's suffrage that many cultivated and noble women are far more capable of intelligently exercising sovereignty than a worthless negro, but the South never was anxious for negro suffrage, and while culture and refinement, and even morality, are desirable virtues, they are not the only qualifications for franchise.

"The primary, inherent and inseparable fitness for suffrage is supporting a family. The plow handle, the forge and the struggle for bread afford experience necessary to properly mark the ballot. Government is a great big business and civilization from the very beginning assigned woman the home and man the business affairs of life.

"There has been much freakish legislation enacted during the past decade that no doubt appeals to woman's love for the ridiculous, but to undertake to unsex the human race by law is the height of legislative folly and a tragedy to mankind.

"We are opposed to the equal rights of woman—we want her to ever remain our superior. We consider woman's desire to seek man's level the yellow peril of Twentieth Century civilization.

"Woman is the medium through which angels whisper their messages to mankind; it is her hand that plants thoughts in the intellectual vineyard; it is through her heart that hope, love and sympathy overflow and bless mankind. Christ—the liberator of woman-kind—was satisfied to teach the lessons of life and He was a man. He chose to rule over human hearts and refused worldly power and men followed after Him, women washed His feet, little children climbed upon His knees and the Ruler of the universe said that in Him He was well pleased. Can woman find a higher calling?"

THEMISTOCLES

When Themistocles was asked by his host at a dinner party to entertain the guests by playing the lute, he replied that he could not play the fiddle, but that he could make a small town a great city. We have in this nation many politicians who are good "fiddlers," but they cannot make a small town a great city. We are overrun with orators who can play upon the passions of the people, but they can't put brick and mortar together. We need builders.

Let those who hunger and thirst for power understand that the highest glory of a statesman is to construct, and that it is better for a man that he should build a public highway than that he should become Governor of a state, and that he start a plow than that he become the author of a law. The true test of statesmanship is the plow and the hammer, so let those who would govern, and build.
